Mike Geragosian's All American Clinics have been in existence for over 40 years. Our experienced staff reflects a proven teaching philosophy and the international reputation for which the All American Clinics are recognized.

Mike is one of the country's most experienced and technically advanced goaltending coaches. Currently an Assistant Coach at Endicott College, Mike has held long-term roles as a coach and goaltending coach at UMass Lowell, Boston University, Merrimack College, and Princeton University.

Over his NCAA coaching career, he has helped his guided his students hit their full potential, while winning **5 NCAA National Championships, 15 NCAA league championships, and 12 Beanpot championships**.

Currently alongside Endicott he has moved up as national consultant for professional, college and U.S.A. Hockey. He has also guest lectured nationally for U.S.A. Hockey summits. Mike holds a Masters Degree and has been an educator for 30 years:

An All-East goaltender himself, Mike continues to produce the finest collegiate goaltenders in the country. Several of his protégé's have become All-American goaltenders and have played at the professional level for Calgary, Edmonton, Pittsburgh and NY Islanders. Mike's hard work philosophy along with his personal teaching methods have help develop several goaltenders playing at all levels.

Mike instructs over 500 goaltenders annually Currently, Mike is the assistant. He has also been an asset to several college head coaches and professional scouts by recruiting goaltenders for their squads. Overall the ULowell "Hall of Famer" and ECAC record holder invites you to this camp to learn all aspects of goaltending and player techniques.
